

New Jersey's do not call list is a valuable tool for myself and my family. I have been hounded in the past by telemarketers for services and items I have no use for. The disruption is time consuming as well as irritating. I am requesting that the list remain in tact, exactly as it is, for the sake of all New Jersey citizens.